 - Original travel consent form.(Color copies must be attached).
12. The invitation letter must be notarized and must include:
 - Full name of the host (as in passport);
 - Full name of the applicant (as in passport);
 - Numbers and series of identification documents (passport, ID card).

Please Note:

The validity period of certificates, bank statements, and other documents issued by Belarusian institutions is 5 days.

General Rule: The purchase and sale agreement must confirm ownership of residential property (house, apartment) that is suitable for living, rather than just rights to a plot of land.

If the applicant claims that there is a residential house on the plot, a utility bill (electricity, water, municipal tax) issued in the applicant's name with the property address must be provided. This will serve as secondary, but strong proof of the existence of a residential building and the applicant's connection to it.
